Campus Update

Kamehameha Schools MAUI

24 Kepakemapa 2021

We are sending this important reminder to all student athletes of Kamehameha Schools Maui.

Student athletes, coaches and staff in all individual and team sports must register proof of full COVID-19 vaccination with KS.

To be eligible to participate in KS Maui athletics:

- All individuals must register proof of full vaccination (two weeks after final dose) with KS.
  - Students should register through Mo‘omō‘ali Olakino.
  - Staff will register through the KS Vaccination Registry.
  - Temporary and Volunteer coaches can work with the KS Maui Volunteer Coordinator to register proof of vaccination.
- Students, coaches, and staff who plan to participate in sports this school year must register their proof of full vaccination no later than September 25, 2021.

Any student wishing to apply for a medical or religious exemption must do so through the health room, and the approved medical or religious exemption must be on file prior to the start of any practices on Monday, 27 September 2021.

Coaches and staff may apply for a medical or religious accommodation through human resources. Accommodation requests must be received and approved by HR prior to the start of any practices on Monday, 27 September 2021.

At KS Maui, we are proud to offer athletics to our haumāna, and with that privilege comes the kuleana to care for yourself and those around you. This step demonstrates our commitment to the safety of our Maui ‘ohana and fellow student athletes throughout the MIL.

If you have any questions about COVID-19 vaccines, we urge you to contact your personal physician.

E mālama pono kākou.
