

KE ALI'I PAUAHI FOUNDATION

Extending Pauahi's Legacy

Princess Pauahi believed that the greatest gift she could leave her people was the gift of education. Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation has been established to nurture this commitment.

Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation, a charitable support organization of Kamehameha Schools, has been established to increase financial aid and scholarships for students of Hawaiian ancestry.

We invite you to be a part of Pauahi's dream to provide educational opportunities for her people.

The Okayama family is an example of how Ke Ali'i Pauahi Foundation's support helps Hawaiians achieve their educational goals. Regina (middle), an alumnus of Roosevelt High School, is a master's candidate at Chaminade University; her children Alysia and Jacob, both Castle High School graduates, attend Windward Community College.
