I HO‘OKAHI KA MANA‘O

- BE OF ONE THOUGHT

“O ka ho‘olōkahi ‘ana iā kākou, ka lohe ‘ana aku i nā mana‘o ho‘ākāka o kekahi po‘e o kākou no nā mea e pono ai kēia lāhui, he mea ‘ano nui loa ia ma ke ola lāhui ‘ana; a iā kākou e ‘ākoakoa mau mai ai ma nā pā‘ina o kēia ‘ano, ma laila kākou e ho‘okama‘āina pono ai kekahi me kekahi, ma laila e lohe ai i nā mana‘o e pono ai ka ho‘okō ‘ia aku, a e ‘ike ‘ia a‘e ai kākou he lāhui.”

“Unifying ourselves – listening to each other talk about things that will benefit us as a people – is very important for the perpetuation of the lāhui; by gathering regularly at meals of this sort, we will become familiar with one another, we will hear ideas that should be carried out, and we will be seen as a lāhui.”

– Prince Kalaniana‘ole, 1918

2018 marks the centennial of The Hawaiian Civic Club, established by Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalaniana‘ole in December 1918.

Just a few weeks prior, members of the ‘Ahahui Pu‘uhonua O Nā Hawai‘i gathered for a luncheon meeting at the invitation of their ‘ahahui president, Prince Kalaniana‘ole. His plan was simple – bring Hawaiian leaders together so they could meet face to face, share food, and talk about the needs of their people. By standing shoulder to shoulder and working together, instead of in isolation, he believed they could create a strong, unifying movement that would uplift their lāhui. Before the meeting was adjourned, it was decided that a constitution would be drafted for a new ‘ahahui.

The Hawaiian Civic Club’s founding goals were to restore the social, intellectual, and economic status of all Hawaiians and to increase pride in race heritage.

For the first year, club membership was limited to Hawaiian men who were assessed an annual fee of $3. Lunakānāwai Ka'apuni (circuit judge) William Ha'eaha'e Heen served as the club's first pelekikena (president), and Kawaiaha'o Church's newly appointed kahu, Reverend Akaiko Akana, was named Hope Pelekikena (vice president).

At the time the Club was established, Prince Kalaniana'ole was in his eighth two-year term in the United States Congress as Hawai'i's Territorial Representative. On his visits home from Washington, D.C. each year, he witnessed increased poverty among his people, many of whom had taken up residence in tenement housing in Honolulu and in larger neighbor island towns. He identified a need for Hawaiians to return to their 'āina to resume traditional practices of mahi'ai and lawai'a and believed that with proper training, Hawaiians would greatly benefit from becoming business owners. In 1921 – a year before the Prince's passing – the long-awaited Hawaiian rehabilitation initiative was codified as the Hawaiian Homes Commission Act. This, too, was a result of the tenacity of the 'Ahahui Pu'uhonua O Nā Hawai'i and the Hawaiian Civic Club.

In the late 1920s, the Club began chartering new 'Ahahui Sivila Hawai'i throughout the islands, inspiring a renaming of the original "Mother Club," to be thenceforth known as the Hawaiian Civic Club of Honolulu.

Today, the Association of Hawaiian Civic Clubs constitutes a confederation of 58 clubs representing five councils: Moku o Keawe (Hawai'i), Nā Hono a'o Pi'ilani (Maui), Ke One o Kākuhihewa (O'ahu), Moku o Manokalanipō (Kaua'i) and Nā Lei Makalapua (Continental U.S.). Annual conventions of the AHCC bring hundreds of delegates together to discuss and adopt resolutions that speak to the wellbeing of Hawaiians and the pae 'āina of Hawai'i. A number of these resolutions make their way to the Hawai'i State Legislature and are often passed into law. Through it all, Prince Kalaniana'ole's founding goals remain central to the work of the AHCC, with many clubs providing post-high scholarships to Hawaiian learners each year.

As music is a cornerstone of Hawaiian cultural expression, each club selects their club mele along with a club flower, color and motto. Over the years, the 'Aha Mele at civic club conventions have ranged from formal Hawaiian choral competitions to informal kani ka pila. Tonight's choral competition brings the entire high school student body of Nā Kula 'o Kamehameha ma Kapālama together in song to feature the mele 'ahahui of 10 Hawaiian Civic Clubs.

Disturbing my mind
There we were together

Bringing a sweet fragrance

So is my royal darling
Long may you live, Ka'iulani

CHORUS

Come and wear your lei
O Ka'iulani, Heavenly-one-above
Your lei of white lehua
Entwined with strands of dainty maile

The rainbow is bright for my child
It is an adornment over a cloudbank
It is revealing that my princess
Is wearing her lei of white lehua
Made so perfectly for her
With the hala of Naue beside the sea
And the fragrant laua'e fern of Makana
It is a gift for you from Kawaihau

In the mist of the Pa'ūpili rain
And the gentle blowing of the wind
The moisture-laden Mālualua wind of Lehua

I am trying so hard to forget love
How will it be taken away
It is so impossible
For we found comfort in the fog

Hold love closely to you
To warm you on cold nights
Cherish it in your happy day
The day on which desire comes

Home where dwells the woman Pele from Kahiki

Magnificent Hualālai rises
Adorning all Kona
There, the mountains of Kohala
Run from the uplands to the sea

And with wisdom from on high
Prosperous lead his people on

Bless, O Lord, our country's chiefs
Grant them wisdom so to live

JONAH KŪHIŌ KALANIANA'OLE

CITIZEN PRINCE OF HAWAI'I

He Ho'oheno No Iona Kūhiō Kalaniana'ole

This is a song of praise for you, Prince Jonah Kūhiō Kalaniana'ole. Defender of the Hawaiian crown and “Citizen Prince” of Hawai'i.

At the home of Prince Kūhiō Kalaniana'ole, Pualeilani, in Waikīkī, a group of distinguished gentlemen met: John C. Lane, William Legros, Alexander G.M. Robertson, William H. Heen, Noah Aluli, Jesse Uluihi, and Kūhiō himself. It was the wish of the Prince for the Hawaiian people to unite into a group which would dedicate themselves to the education of Hawaiians—the young and the old—all of them—to help elevate and promote their social, economic, civic and intellectual status. This meeting would mark the founding of the “Mother Club,” the Honolulu Civic Club, which would count as offshoots from this visionary dream, clubs spanning the Hawaiian Island chain and the continental U.S.

– Notes from “Sis” Widemann

Liholiho/ Beautiful 'Ilima

The Hawaiian Civic Club of Honolulu song. The 'ilima blossom is the choice of my heart and indeed so lovely to behold.

Nā Kuahiwi 'Elima

E ō mai e Hawai'i o Keawe! Honoring the civic clubs of Hawai'i Island. Maunaloa, Maunakea, Hualālai, the Kohala mountain range and Haleakalā are regaled.

Kaleleonālani

E ō e Mauinuiakama! Kaleleonālani is your name. O Chiefess, you are indeed beloved by the nation. The beauty of Kahului is seen and all that is seen is beautiful. The civic clubs of Maui, Lāna'i and Moloka'i are honored.

Hanohano Hanalei

E ō e Kaua'i o Manokalanipō! Honoring the civic clubs of Kaua'i. The glory of Hanalei is its heavy rain, sand of rosy hue, and the majestic Nāmolokama Falls. Never have I seen such splendor.

Aloha 'ia 'o Wai'anae

E ō e O'ahualua! Glorious is O'ahu with majestic Mount Ka'ala looming above with small-leafed maile growing in profusion. In honor of the O'ahu civic clubs.

Ku'u Home 'o Keukaha

Our hearts sing our thanks to you o Chief Kalaniana'ole. Let us all work together with love so that the life of the land will be perpetuated in righteousness.

entitled "Wake! Freshmen Wake!"*

MO‘OLELO

The Song Contest is unique to Kamehameha—a tradition that has involved all students in musical competition for ninety-eight years. Miss Laura Brown, Director of Music at Kamehameha 1926-1947, stated that “the objectives of the song contest are to build up the repertoire of the best in Hawaiian music for the cultural heritage of any student who attends Kamehameha; to develop leadership, cooperation and good class spirit; and to give students the use of their singing voices and to give them pleasure in singing as a means of expression.”

The first song contest for male students was held at the School for Boys in 1921. A cup named for George Alanson Andrus, a former director of music at Kamehameha School for Boys whose life inspired the idea of an annual song contest, was offered as an incentive in the competition.

1922 marked the first year that both the Kamehameha boys and girls held song contests. Mrs. E. G. Scoville, a visitor to the Islands from Watertown, Connecticut, was so impressed with the singing of the Kamehameha girls that she donated the New England Mothers’ Cup for the School for Girls competition.

In 1967, an additional trophy was offered by the Trustees in honor of Charles Edward King, an 1891 graduate of the School for Boys. The trophy is awarded to the class winning the combined class competition.

The Louise Aoe McGregor Award, named for a member of the first graduating class of the School for Girls in 1897, was first presented in 1972. It recognizes the student director who has made the most significant contribution to the class in organizational ability, leadership, assistance to others, and persistence.

The Richard Lyman, Jr. ‘Ōlelo Makuahine (Mother Language) Award recognizes excellence in the use of the Hawaiian language within a song. Mr. Lyman, a Kamehameha Schools trustee from 1959 to 1988, was keenly interested in the preservation of Hawaiian language and culture.

The Helen Desha Beamer Award recognizes the best musical performance. Donated by the Kamehameha Alumni Association, the award honors the substantial contributions of Helen Desha Beamer to the lexicon of Hawaiian music. Helen Desha Beamer was a 1900 graduate of the Kamehameha School for Girls.

In the early years, the girls’ song contest was held in front of the Assembly Hall, and the boys had their contest in front of Bishop Hall. When the School for Girls campus on Kapālama Heights was completed in 1931, separate contests for boys and girls were held in the auditorium. In 1952, the first combined contest of the School for Girls and School for Boys Senior Division took place in Kekūhaupi’o, the newly constructed fieldhouse. The song contest moved to the Neal Blaisdell Center in 1964 and has been attended by capacity crowds there since then. A highlight of the evening is the Hō’ike, a show to entertain and inform the audience while the judges’ score sheets are tallied. The Hō’ike is an exhibition of the beauty of Hawaiian mele and hula.
