

Pauahi's gift

On November 4, Kamehameha Schools faces the most important legal challenge in its history: whether it may continue to give preference to native Hawaiian children in its admissions. Many of Hawai'i's leaders—Hawaiian and non-Hawaiian—have stepped forward to voice their support for allowing Kamehameha Schools to continue its admissions policy as a means for making all of Hawai'i healthier and stronger. We ask for your prayers and support as well.
