As of June 30, 2010, the overall fair value of Kamehameha Schools’ endowment was approximately $7.8 billion. The endowment total return is reported at fair value and excludes non-investment related assets, such as educational, administrative, and agricultural and conservation assets.

For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2010, Kamehameha Schools spent approximately $299 million on educational programs and educational support, with $102 million spent on community-focused programs and $129 million spent on campus-based programs. These financial resources enabled Kamehameha Schools to extend its educational reach to more Hawaiians through its education strategic plan, adopted in 2005 and based on the Kamehameha Schools Strategic Plan 2000-2015.

Fiscal year 2010 was the fifth year of the 10-year education strategic plan, and the number of children and families impacted by Kamehameha’s campus and community programs increased by more than 2 percent, from approximately 44,400 learners to more than 45,400 learners. More than 13,400 parents and caregivers were provided training and support for families and caregivers of children in the prenatal to grade 12 community.

Pre-natal to 8 years of age
Kamehameha Schools served more than 9,400 keiki ages 0-8 and their parents and caregivers through its KS center-based preschools, preschool scholarships, literacy instruction and various educational collaborations. That number increased more than 2 percent from 31,920 preschool sites across the state and nearly 4,000 students served through community collaborations. Nearly 1,900 Paʻauhi Keiki Scholarships were awarded totaling $11.3 million.

Grades 4 through post-high
Kamehameha Schools served more than 17,100 learners through its enrichment, campus outreach and summer school programs such as the Explorations Series, Kamehameha Scholars, ‘Ike Pono and Career & Post-High Counseling. More than 2,000 post-high scholarships were awarded totaling $12.6 million and more than 3,600 students were supported with $9.1 million in per-pupil funding and support to 17 of the Department of Education’s 31 public charter schools. More than 1,850 non-campus learners were enrolled in campus-based summer programs.

Campus programs
Kamehameha Schools educated more than 3,570 learners, including graduating more than 650 seniors, at campus programs on Hawai‘i, on Maui and at Kapalama. Orphan and indigent children comprised approximately 30 percent of students invited to campus programs and 25 percent of students enrolled during fiscal year 2010.
