Fiscal year 2012 was the seventh year of Kamehameha Schools 10-year Education Strategic Plan, adopted in 2005 and based on the Kamehameha Schools Strategic Plan 2000-2015. The number of children and families impacted by Kamehameha Schools' campus and community programs increased from approximately 46,900 learners to more than 47,400 learners.

Kamehameha Schools’ mission is to fulfill Pauahi’s desire to create educational opportunities and provide support to improve the capability and well-being of people of Hawaiian ancestry.

KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS ENDOWMENT
The endowment that supports Kamehameha Schools’ mission is the legacy of Princess Bernice Pauahi Bishop. It was valued at $9.2 billion at June 30, 2012. A global, diversified financial assets portfolio comprised $6.0 billion, and Hawai‘i commercial real estate represented $3.2 billion at fair value.

KAMEHAMEHA SCHOOLS LANDS
Commercially zoned lands make up 70 percent of total acreage (363,363 acres) belonging to Kamehameha Schools. Agricultural and conservation lands comprise 99 percent and are considered sustainability assets, not included in the endowment fund. During the fiscal year 2012, Kamehameha Schools spent $8 million (net of agricultural rents) to steward agricultural and conservation lands and natural resources.
