NĀ WAI ŌLA SUMMER READING

5th Grade Summer Reading Requirement
2019-20

FISH IN A TREE

- Author: Lynda Mullaly Hunt
- In this uplifting novel, Ally, who has struggled for years with dyslexia, discovers there's a lot more to her--and to everyone--than a label., and that great minds don't always think alike.

YOU GO FIRST

- Author: Erin Entrada Kelly
- This is an engaging exploration of family, bullying, spelling, art, and the ever-complicated world of middle school friendships.

MAXI'S SECRETS

- Author: Lynn Plourde
- Timminy, a pipsqueak of a boy, is perfect bully bait at his new middle school. When a lovable, does-it-her-way dog wiggles her way into his heart, wonderful things happen to help Timminy become a bigger, better person.

WHAT DO STUDENTS NEED TO DO?

This summer reading list was chosen to build a strong kahua (foundation) of empathy, kindness, and resilience as we begin our fifth grade learning journey. Please choose and read ONE of the novels listed to the left: Fish in the Tree, You Go First, or Maxi's Secrets. Please purchase a copy of your chosen book (hard copy preferred) to track your thinking. If using a digital copy, students must be able to access in school.

01

Pick ONE book from the list and annotate/track your thinking in the book. (You may use post-its, another paper, or write in your book)

02

Complete the worksheet attached and answer the two character analysis questions.

03

Bring your copy of the book with annotations and completed worksheet on the first day of school, Monday, August 5, 2018.
